

Celestino Piatti-inspired Art Projects

get crafty with three Piatti projects created by barley & birch

Make: A DIY Celestino Piatti-Inspired Puppet Theater

This magical little theater is nestled among the leaves of a sunny secret glade. Made from recycled boxes and cardboard tubes, it's a DIY project that promises hours of imaginative art-making and creative bookish play – all inspired by the stories in Piatti for Children.

View the full instructions here!

Make: Spring Landscapes Inspired by Celestino Piatti

Influenced by stories in Piatti for Children, make your own pastoral spring scenery that's bursting with wonderful opportunities for mark-making exploration. Using recycled products and unconventional tools, create an artful ode to spring – Piatti style!

View the full instructions here!

North
South

Make: Celestino Piatti-Inspired Garden Art for Kids

Use mixed media such as paint or pastel to design a garden art peacock or sun inspired by Piatti's The Happy Owls. A perfect way to decorate a garden, use to spruce up school landscaping for a special event or give to a teacher as a back-to-school gift!

View the full instructions here!

Text adapted from barley & birch © 2022. All rights reserved.